Thursday 17 May, Brown Center, Durham, NH

7:30 - 8:00 Coffee and continental breakfast
8:00 - 9:00 Introductions with brief description of current research interests
9:00 - 9:30 Workshop objectives / SRC year in review
9:30 - 10:00 Sustainability science challenges

10:00 - 10:15 Break

10:15 - 11:00 SRC sustainability science proposals submitted to federal agencies
   C. Wake: Enhancing Resilience in the Gulf of Maine Watershed (NSF-SRN)
   S. Aytur: Building A Network for A Resilient Food System in New Hampshire and Southern Maine (NSF-CHN)
   P. Kirshen: Collaborative Planning for Climate Change Adaptation: A Case Study in Great Bay (NOAA NERRS Collaborative)

11:00 – 12:30 Discussion of SRC sustainability science proposals submitted to federal agencies

12:30 - 1:30 Lunch (provided)

1:30 - 2:00 Description and formation SRC Working Groups
   Water Quality, Quantity, and Management
   Sustainable Food systems
   Disease, Health and the Environment
   Others?

2:00 – 3:00 Examples of existing UNH expertise that can be leveraged
   K. Gardner: Interactions among climate, land use, ecosystem services and society (NSF EPSCoR funded project)
   W. Wolheim & H. Asbjornsen: Sustainable Agriculture
   J. Porter: Health Informatics
   T. Safford: Public Perceptions of Coastal Environmental Problems

3:00 - 4:30 Breakout into Working Groups to discuss:
   key research questions for future proposals key methods
   existing expertise and infrastructure that can be leveraged gaps (people, methods, skills, etc.)
   specific funding opportunities to target with proposals

4:30 - 5:00 Report out
5:00 - 5:15 Summary of the day and preview of Friday
Friday 18 May, Wentworth By the Sea, Newcastle, NH

7:30 – 8:00 Coffee and breakfast (eggs!)

8:00 – 9:00 Reconvene Working Groups

9:00 – 10:00 More examples of existing UNH expertise that can be leveraged

  - Joel Hartter: Landscapes, Networks, & Social Resource Decisions
  - M. Palace: Eco-epidemiology
  - V. Cooper: Disease Ecology
  - S. Senier: Sustainability and Indigenous Communities

10:00 - 10:20 Break

10:20 - 12:00 Working Group discussion of new ideas to include in proposals

12:00 - 1:00 Lunch

1:00 - 1:30 How SRC should support Working Groups over the coming year?

1:30 - 2:30 Discussion of integration across Working Group

2:30 – 3:00 Workshop Summary and Next Steps

3:00- 3:30 Drive downtown to Portsmouth parking garage

3:30 - 5:30 Boat ride in Portsmouth Harbor